Terry: John and I went to a rock concert on Saturday. It was at the Central Stadium.

Chris: Who performed at the concert?

John: Okean Elzy, my favourite group.

Terry: It was only three o'clock in the afternoon when we got there, so we watched as they were setting up the speakers for the sound system. One of the men working there even asked me to help, so we ran over and gave him a hand.

Lilly: When did they start the concert?

John: At six o'clock, and since we had helped earlier, we were allowed to sit at the edge of the stage. We were close enough to touch the performers.

Terry: For me the best moment of the concert was when Sviatoslav Vakarchuk and his team appeared. I couldn't believe when I saw him walking out. I felt so excited to be near my favourite singer.

Chris: Did you speak to him?

John: Well, there were too many people. Everyone clapped. Sviatoslav stopped right in front of us, leaned over and said, "Enjoy the show!"

Lilly: What happened then?

Terry: He started singing all of his hits. We all joined him and danced to the music. The rest of the concert was wonderful, and everybody had a great time.

Chris: How did you feel after the concert?

John: As for me, I was happy because I had had the chance to see my favourite band and talk to Sviatoslav in front of five thousand people.

Lilly: And what about you, Terry?

Terry: I felt exhausted, but also delighted. I enjoyed the concert very much.

Chris: I see you really spent a great time at the weekend.

John: Yes, we were lucky.
