Green Children in Woolpit

Last year, I was on holiday in Suffolk with a friend. One evening, we were walking in a forest near the village of Woolpit when we heard some strange voices. They were coming from behind some bushes. When we went closer, we saw two children. The strange thing was that these children were green! Their skin, their clothes, everything! They were like aliens. When my friend saw them, she started screaming. She was frightened! I was calm and tried to follow them, but the children disappeared into the forest. Were they playing a joke on us or not? I really don't know.
