Kharkiv

Kharkiv is the second largest city in Ukraine after Kyiv. It is used to be the capital of the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic in the period of 1918-34. It is situated in the northeastern part of the country. The city is home to 1.6 million people. The ancestors of the present-day students were Cossacks who founded the city as a fortress in 1654 to protect southern Russian borders from the Crimean Tatars and named it Kharkiv after the river flowing it. The wooden fort had ten towers and was surrounded by a double wall. In 1726 Kharkiv Collegium was founded where the famous poet and philosopher Skovoroda taught. In 1805 Kharkiv university was founded. It was the first in Livoberezhna Ukraine and the third in the Russian empire. At present Kharkiv national university is named after the talented scientist Karazin. The most attractive places are: Park of Maksim Gorky, Shevchenko Park, Dolphinarium, Freedom Square, where all concerts and shows take place. This square is the second largest city square in Europe.
