Read the situations below and write a note and a text message.

• greet and sign off just by writing names.

 keep the text short and give only the important information.

· remember that you don't have to write full sentences.

When you're writing a text message:

- you don't need to write a greeting or to sign off.
- you only give the important information and often shorten words and use SMS language/chatspeak.

- You need something from the shops. Write a note telling your sister that you've borrowed her bike and tell her when you'll be back.
- Football practice is going to finish late. Write a text message to your friend saying you can't go to the cinema with him/her.
